A LETTER FROM JUDGE MORRIS

We Writes Back to a Friend and Says That He Wants to Commit Suicide—Tragedy
Sent to Washington C. H. Wm. He Said.

Work of Lighting—Other Ohio State Deputations.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 24.—Ex-Police Judge Charles E. Morris' last words were made public yesterday. John E.
Morris, a law student in his office, received a letter from him, written on the day he stopped from home, and dated:
Galloway, O. It shows the heretofore unexplained cause of his��acations, and how badly the man, who stood so high, is affected by his crimes. The letter is as follows:

GATTON, O., Oct. 17, 1894.
JOHN: I have left Springfield to return.
Give Allie this with my best regards and let no one see us. We lived too high the first four years we were in Springfield. I got in debt and could not get out. Godly. God bless you, God bless you, and all my friends in Springfield.
I expect to commit suicide any minute.

CHARLES E. MORRIS.

From the fact that Morris made an extended tour of the lakes this summer,
it is believed he is in Canada, and that he had given up the idea of returning to the U.S. when he made the trip.
The defaulting attorney of Rich-away county, who fled to Canada eight or nine years ago, was a warm personal friend of Morris, and many believe it would not be surprising if they should be found together. Crooked transactions of Morris continue to turn up. A sufferer is Miss Julia Patterson, who gave him $400 to invest. This he pocketed as he did $400. Barney Horvick gave him to put in the building and loan association.

Among the sums he borrowed before leaving are: Hon. J. E. McGraw, $600; Postmaster Wallace, $50; John J.
Sullivan, $160; C. B. Kissel, $10; Kuhnman & Wren, $100.

Another thief is just reported. The victim is Mary Huffman of Enon, O., and the amount $50. She gave it to Morris to put in the building association.

EMERGENCY BOARD

Authorities Say No to the Militia Sent to Washington, C. H.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—The state emergency board met in the governor's office yesterday and authorized a deficiency of $5,000 to pay the troops under arms at Washington C. H.

The question of reducing the working force of the blind at Idaea was considered, the facts being presented by the trustees and a delegation of citizens from Morrow county. The institution has available cash and bills receivable
to meet immediate wants of the inmates, and the board postponed action until a statement of the loss can be furnished.

Work of Lighting

TOMORROW, O., Oct. 26.—Lightning struck the homes of Frank M. Myers and James E. Edwards, on Daniels street. The bolt descended along the chimney at the former place, burst the stone doors and rendered Mrs. Myers and her little daughter unconscious. At the latter place Mrs. Edwards and daughter were severely stunned. The lightning struck the chimney, burning the window curtain and tearing off a portion of the roof.

New Incorporations

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state yesterday as follows: The Cincinnati, Hamilton, Middletown and Franklin Canal Boat company, Hamilton, $35,000; First Regular Baptist church, Franklin; Lima club, Lima;
Ohio Armistead company, Cincinnati,
$25,000; Mount Gilead Electric Light and Power company, $15,000; Akron
Cultivator company, $100,000.

Peculiar Accident

CHALMERS, O., Oct. 25.—At the Crescent mine yesterday while Ed Wil-hams, a brakeman on the Toledo and Ohio Central railroad, was holding a scantling against an iron bar to hold car from an adjacent track, a wood bar, and some Williams on the head, rended him senseless, in which condition he remained several hours.

Rutherford P. Hayes Married

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—Rutherford
P. Hayes, son of the ex-president, and Miss Lucy H. Platt of New York, were married yesterday in Trinity Episcopal church by Rev. James of Kenyon college. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will reside at Rutherford Hayes' house, which the couple were second cousins.

Burned by Incendiaries

WAPAKONETA, O., Oct. 25.—Yesterday the large barns of John Gauthier and Mrs. Ike Gauthier were destroyed by fire. Three fine coach horses were burned. In the last two years no less than 20 horses have been destroyed by fire, and all were of an incendiary origin. The loss will reach $8,000, with small insurance.

Mysteriously Missing

FOSTORIA, O., Oct. 25.—John Studebaker, who ran a five and feed store here, has mysteriously disappeared. He went to deliver a sack of flour and has not returned. He had considerable money on his person, and it is feared he has been foully dealt with.

An Old Man Arrested For Counterfeiting

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 25.—Samuel Harmon, aged 64, was arrested yesterday for counterfeiting. He served a term in the penitentiary 30 years ago
for forging.

Death of an Ex-Postmaster

WINCHESTER, O., Oct. 25.—Ex-Postmaster Josiah Osburn, one of the oldest residents in this city, died last night of the stomach. He was 70 years of age.

State Federation of Women's Clubs

SUNIVERSITY, O., Oct. 25.—At the session of the convention of the women's clubs of Ohio yesterday afternoon
it was decided to form a state federation of clubs.

Dropped Dead

ZANEVILLE, O., Oct. 25.—John H.
Dodd, one of the wealthiest residents of the city, dropped dead.

PRESIDENT AND EX-PRESIDENT.

Mr. Cleveland and Governor Harrison Both in New York City.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—President Cleveland and ex-President Harrison both arrived in this city yesterday.
The former was accompanied by Mrs.
Cleveland and F. C. Benedict, as whose residence in Greenwich, the president and family spent Tuesday night with Mrs. and Miss Benedict. The party was driven to the home of Dr. Bryant, the president's physician.

Ex-President Harrison went to the Fifth Avenue hotel where a vast assemblage of Republican politicians was awaiting his arrival.

The Democratic party is on the side of the wage-workers and farmers while the Republican party is only adjunct of the trusts, combines and monopolies.

You are not in favor of endorsing the legislature, which appropriated $100,000 salary for services never performed, are you? Then don't vote the Republican ticket, for you will endorse that steal if you do.

The Republicans in their platform denounce the income tax as a "tax upon prosperity." Are we to infer that if that party comes into power in the state it will levy taxes upon adversity and look to the poor house insane asylums, orphanages and the like for revenues?

When the price of an article goes down under the new tariff the Republicans groan for the poor working man, and when it goes up they groan for the poor consumer. However since they lost the offices the Republicans never open their hungry mouths except to groan.

Mr. John Sherman began a series of campaign speeches in Ohio last week and we suspect that Mr. McKinley will not find much to comfort and encourage him in the senator's remarks about the tariff. "I am not new and never was," said Sherman "an extreme protectionist."

Stick a pin in Mr. Wilson's prediction, in his interview in London, that either Reed nor McKinley—and he might have added Harrison—will be the Republican candidate for President in 1896, but that the party will probably choose a tariff conservative like Allison. McKinley is gone to stay.

Within a few days, right here in Ohio, three or four white ladies have been assaulted by negroes. The last outrage was at Hicksville, where a negro outraged a child only three years old. At Newark an old lady was attacked and almost killed, while at Washington C. H. several lives of whites, who attempted to get hold of a black ravisher, were lost by shots from the militia, who were defending their negro rapist. This is horrifying to Ohio. What's to be done?

Our governor is out in other States telling the people how affairs ought to be managed, just the same.

The latest report from Chairman Wilson's district, in West Virginia, brought by those who have carefully gone over the ground, is that he will not only be re-elected, but that his majority will exceed that given him in '92. His presence seems to have aroused the enthusiasm of his constituents to an unusual degree.

In the circle right under the make an X on the election ticket, and put no other mark upon it.

In a private interview at Ann Arbor, Michigan, ex-speaker Thomas B. Reed said: "If the Republicans should be successful this fall nothing would be done with the tariff until after 1896, and business would have a chance to revive. On this issue there could be no doubt as to the result."

Mr. Reed said that the return of the Republican party to power would not necessarily mean the re-enactment of the McKinley law. He did not think that the party would make that issue. Changing conditions had, he believed, left room for many modifications of the McKinley act.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY IN NEW ORLEANS.

There are some obscure points in the sugar question which Governor McKinley neglected to clear up in his speech to the Louisiana planters on Saturday last. Although he has become, to the viscidities of party, a champion of the sugar bounty, he was neither the author nor the advocate of the bounty clause in the tariff of 1890. Nor was he originally in favor of the abolition of the duty on raw sugar and the substitution of a bounty of two cents a pound for the protection of the planters of Louisiana. The persistent champion of free raw sugar was Representative and Senator-elect Gear, of Iowa, who succeeded, after much effort, in bringing around the Republican majority in the Committee of Ways and Means in its favor.

The first printed draft of the tariff bill of 1890, which embodied the ideas of Mr. McKinley, contained a sugar schedule very much like the sugar schedule in the present tariff. This schedule provided that all sugar under 16 degrees Dutch standard should be subject to a duty of 35 per cent., and that sugar above 16 degrees (refined) should pay a duty of 40 per cent. ad valorem; but there was no question of a sugar bounty. That was Governor McKinley's notion of a sugar tariff in 1890. If it had been adopted it would have been more favorable to the refiners and less favorable to the Louisiana planters than the present tariff.

But, later, against the opinion of Governor McKinley, the bill was amended in committee by making raw sugar free, putting a protective duty of four-tenths of a cent a pound on refined sugar, and giving a bounty of two cents a pound to the sugar planters. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. 50 cent bottles for sale by Melville, druggist, post office building.

Purifies the Blood.

"I have been doctoring with two different doctors for a year, but did not get any better. The doctors did not know what the trouble was, except that my blood was too thick.

Whenever I rubbed myself it would break out in sore and would keep me from sleeping at night. Hood's Saraparilla was recommended and I got six bottles and began taking it. Before I had finished two bottles the breaking out had left me. I have given Hood's Saraparilla to other members of my family and we have all used it with benefit."—Mrs. L. B. BRENNEMAN, Elida, Ohio.

Hood's Pills cure sick headache.

Bugging Grapes.

Bugging grapes produces choice, clean fruit. Bugging is a sure preventive of grape rot. Again, when the newly formed small grape clusters are covered with a bug and soon fastened the depredations of birds and insects will be almost if not quite wholly avoided. The latter sting many of the berries and make them wormy. When the grapes are ripe, insects eat them open, and soon use up the punctured ones.

These, with the birds, can so de-moralize an acre of grapes that one cannot get sound bunches enough to make a fair exhibition of them. All this can be prevented by bugging.

It is seldom that at town or county fairs fruitgrowers or farmers make the display of grapes that they should make. Why should not every farmer make something of a small fruit exhibit? By simply tying a common muslin bag around the newly formed fruit cluster the choicest fruit may be obtained.

To the neck close, but avoid tying in such a manner that severe winds break the clusters from the vines. Try this as an experiment. Leave the bags on until the fruit is fully ripe. Upon removal the fruit will develop large, finely formed and developed and so bright and lustrous one could scarcely doubt each berry had been carefully cleaned.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Clerical Simplicity.

The London Christian Commonwealth has been tempted to print the following "good story" of a country clergyman whose finances do not apparently extend to banting operations: Going to the bank with a check the clerk handed it back with a request that he would endorse it, and it should then be cashed. After much deliberation the reverend gentleman came to the conclusion that he could, without violation of his conscience, accede to the request, so he took the treasured piece of paper and wrote across the back of it, "I heartily endorse this check."

Allen's Discovery for Piles.

Allen's Discovery for Piles is a certain cure for all forms of piles. You have sores and chafing with intense itching often at night? It is dangerous to neglect these symptoms. If you have suffered for years with chronic piles and feel you can't be cured, try Allen's Discovery trial. It is a new discovery that cures piles. Sold by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Sent by mail for 60 cents. Address Allen's Discovery, Box 83, LeRoy, N. Y.

How would the miners of the United States, who in their modest way have taken up so large a share of public attention this year, like to live in Germany? One clause of a bill before the German parliament forbids miners to attend political meetings. Personal liberty in Germany seems to be a peculiar quality.

Evolution of the Baby.
Doubtless it has occurred to few fond parents to ask what makes a baby grow. The infantile ape and monkey are still creatures, as agile as kitten, from the time they are born. Only the human new born baby is covered with great rolls of fat and sleeps two-thirds of the time. Dr. Louis Robinson, who is interested in baby studying, has found out the reason, he thinks. It tells of ages of grief and suffering such as have seldom been equaled.

Man is undoubtedly a product of the tropics. Food was plentiful and easily obtained. Therefore the young of the human ape was little and slender from the start, ready to run up a tree. But man migrated to colder climates. During the winter there were scarcity of food and starvation. The hibernating animals feed themselves up fat in summer. Thus they stored away a supply of food for winter. Let us drop it from their own bodies. Man involuntarily imitated this idea. In times of scarcity the lean babies and the weak, old people died from privation. The fat babies lived because they, too, like the hibernators, had a supply ahead that tired them over all good times. The weak and scrawny babies were weeded out by the merciless hand of death. The fat ones were left, and they transmitted their fat storing qualities in turn to their children. Now nearly all babies are fat.

In a private interview at Ann Arbor, Michigan, ex-speaker Thomas B. Reed said: "If the Republicans should be successful this fall nothing would be done with the tariff until after 1896, and business would have a chance to revive. On this issue there could be no doubt as to the result."

Mr. Reed said that the return of the Republican party to power would not necessarily mean the re-enactment of the McKinley law.

He did not think that the party would make that issue.

Changing conditions had, he believed, left room for many modifications of the McKinley act.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY IN NEW ORLEANS.

Governor McKinley has some good ideas. One is that it will allow no intoxicating drinks to be sold at its bar. Another is that no member may speak more than half an hour, while yet another forbids a member that the party would make that issue.

Changing conditions had, he believed, left room for many modifications of the McKinley act.

Our governor is out in other States telling the people how affairs ought to be managed, just the same.

Drunkenness has no comparison in evil effect to the opium or morphine habit, when firmly fixed on the hapless victim.

Mother should be careful in use of simple salve as a cough cure with their children. Many so called cures depend upon the stupefying effect of the opium they contain to dash the cough. Brand's Salve is one which can give your children with perfect confidence that is entirely free from opiates, as well as a reliable cure, not only to stop the cough, but also perfectly heal the deceased parts.

Iced Cheese Biscuits

These tea cheese biscuits are delicious.

Make a custard with the yolk of two eggs and one cup of milk; add to it two tablespoonsfuls of grated Parmesan cheese, pepper and salt to taste. Let it cool. Then add one cup of good cream well whipped, mix thoroughly and freeze the mixture. Then mould it in a square tin, and lay it in salt and ice for some hours. Cut it in neat squares and serve with sponge cake.

Orange Flirt.

Add the juice of three lemons to a quart of water; put in a saucepan with a cup of sugar; set on the fire until it boils; stir in three tablespoonsfuls of cornstarch and set aside to cool. Peel six large oranges, slice and lay in a deep glass dish; pour the mixture over. Spread the top with meringue and serve very cold with sponge cake.

Thieves Carry Away Part of John O'Neill's Grocery.

Backed the Vehicle Up to the Front Door and Loaded It—John Lutz also Robbed.

The boldest robbery of recent perpetration in Lima was executed some time last night at the grocery store of John O'Neill, near Halle street, on North Main, which was entered by thieves who carried away almost a wagon load of tobacco, cigars, groceries, etc.

The Lima College people have taken up the street railway project on West Wayne street to the college, and it is highly probable that the line will be built next spring.

The Lima Club, of this city, was incorporated yesterday, Messrs. Wm. E. Boone, J. W. VanDyke, F. E. Eusted, S. S. Wheeler and F. E. Baker being the incorporators. An account of the organization of the club, its object, etc., has been published in the TIMES-DEMOCRAT.

The Delphos Herald says of the address of Gen. Ellis, of this city, at the U. V. U. encampment at Delphos:

Gen'l Louis F. Ellis, of Lima, was introduced and made a short address. He is an able speaker and entertained his hearers very pleasantly, but considering the fact that he has a son living at the point of death, he could not be expected to speak with his full vim.

Engines 307 of the O. & E., presented a beautiful appearance when it pulled into Kenton to-day. They ran into a hand car loaded with red and white paint near DeClift and it was spattered all over the engine. Six section men were on the hand car but they got out of the way in time. The engineer of 307 thought the red paint was blood and he was badly scared.—Kenton News.

JOHN LUTZ ROBBER.

This morning, when John Lutz went into his office in the opera house block, he found that during the night someone had entered the room and stolen a new $5 umbrella and two new suits of underwear, valued at $12.

The door to the office was locked and it is supposed the thief gained an entrance with a false key, as no entrance to the place could have been made except by way of the door. The police were notified.
